My response

Dear Mr. Judge Jesse M. Furman,

My name is Sharnetta Ward and I owned a 2004 pontiac grand am that had ignition issues. I no longer drive this vehicle; however, it's at my grandmother's house in her yard. During the time, I was driving this particular vehicle. I found myself late for work on several occasions. The last straw for me was being late for work due to my car not cranking in the piggly wiggly parking lot down the road from my residents at the time. I stopped there to grab some food for my kids and family before I went to work. Unfortunately, that was a very frustrating day for me; in fact, I found a local shop that fixed my ignition problem; however, I can't remember where my paperwork or receipt is because that was awhile ago and I started driving another vehicle. I appreciate all the letters and notices for all of these victims in this matter, and I hope we can get justice for this matter at hand. I hope everyone will seek justice at the end. Although, this matter at hand has been a while for our resolution to come to an end.

Sharnetta Ward,

Judge Jesse M.
Furman

If you need to submit supporting documentation after you have filed your Settlement Claim Form:

- a. Please submit a copy of your Settlement Claim Form with each submission of supporting documentation. Please include your name on each document you submit.
- b. If you do not include a copy of your Settlement Claim Form with your supporting documentation, your claim may not be complete. If you are unable to submit a copy of your Settlement Claim Form with your supporting documentation, please submit a letter providing the same information as the Settlement Claim Form.

SETTLEMENT PAYMENT INFORMATION:

- 1) You need to submit a separate Settlement Claim Form for each Subject Vehicle you owned or leased at any time up to the 2014 recall announcements by GM. The settlement payment amount for each eligible Settlement Claim will depend upon the number of eligible Settlement Claims submitted subject to the different recalls, which recalls apply to your Subject Vehicle and the settlement implementation costs (such as claims administration).
